Fall 2010

Shades of Green

Join us for an afternoon High Tea with entertainment by StoryVoices

Sunday September 19, 2010, 3:00pm

Folsom Community Center

Four women actors, performing as individuals and as an ensemble, tell stories through prose, poetry and song in four-part harmony. StoryVoices debuts their new production of Shades of Green; taking the audience on a theatrical journey exploring the many aspects of Mother Nature and our environment. Drawing on literary, historical, contemporary and original writings, StoryVoices seamlessly weaves an unforgettable tapestry of story telling for adult audiences. You will hear storytelling theatre that entertains and inspires. High tea will be served after the performance.

Tickets are $20.00, seniors (65) $15.00.

Not recommended for children under 16.

Contact the Folsom History Museum (916) 985-2707 for tickets.

CALLING ALL COLLECTORS!

From mid-November to mid-January, the Folsom History Museum will be holding a "Collections and Curiosities" exhibit and we are looking for unique, interesting collections to display. Contact Candy Miller at (916) 988-7699 or folsomcandy@sbcglobal.net if you have a collection you would like to display.

Include a description of your collection and the approximate size of the space you need. No collection is too small!

The Museum will supply locked display cases and exhibit space and signage within the Museum. Exhibitors will also be asked to provide the names and addresses of family and/or friends they would like to be invited to the opening reception.

What's Happening?

The Antique Quilt and Vintage Fashion Show features OUR collections this year.

And what about our Three Sisters Garden at the Pioneer Village? Have you seen it yet?

Be sure to come and see!

13th Annual Antiques Evaluation Day is Saturday, September 11, 2010; 10:00 to 2:00 at the museum, 823 Sutter Street

Save the Date! Friday October 15, 5:30 to 7:30

Plan to attend the 150th Anniversary Party of the Wells Fargo Building (Palmer and Day Assay Office). This event promises to be a joyous occasion as we remember the effort led by Bud and Artie Davies to save the front of the building and how it led to the establishment of the Folsom Historical Society and the two museums. October 15, 2010 5:30 to 7:30 at the Museum, 823 Sutter St.

WIND Productions is coordinating the reception with staff and volunteers at the Folsom History Museum. Expect music, food and stories. Wear a “period” costume if you want and come with fun in mind.

Volunteers Needed!

September 19 is an “event-full” day for us.

- We will need volunteers to work at the parking garage and at the museum for Street Fair.
- We will also need volunteers to work at the StoryVoices event decorating, fixing food, and selling raffle tickets.

If you are available to help out on this day in any of these venues, please call Mary Mast, Museum Director 916-985-2707 or info@folsomhistorymuseum.org
